Peter 5:6-7 commands us to "humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time, casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you." Casting all our cares on the Lord is not a simple task but an essential part of our relationship with Jesus Christ. It is a profound test of our faith, demanding that we surrender everything to Him and demonstrate our complete trust in His care. Sadly, many people only turn to God when they have no other options. However, we must humble ourselves before Him every day, acknowledging that we need His guidance and strength to navigate life's challenges. Trusting God for provision, healing, comfort, and friendship is not a matter of convenience or preference; it is a matter of faith. We must trust Him even in the darkest moments when we feel like we have no control. When we let go of our own strength and power over our lives, we come to understand the true depth of our relationship with Jesus Christ. It is only then that we experience His peace that surpasses all understanding and His love that never fails. Let it go!
