“Everyone who acknowledges me publicly here on earth, I will also acknowledge before my Father in heaven. But everyone who denies me here on earth, I will also deny before my Father in heaven.” (Matthew 10:32-33)

We live in a world where people post everything, what they ate, where they went, who they’re with. However, when it comes to Jesus, many stay silent. Jesus doesn’t want to be your hidden contact; He wants to be your public confession.

These verses are not just a warning; they are a promise. If we proudly claim Jesus here, He will proudly claim us there. The Savior of the world will proudly say, “Those are Mine.” The opposite is sobering. If we shrink back from His name, He will step back from ours.

Let’s be real: it’s not always easy to speak up for Jesus. There is pressure to stay quiet and blend in, but silence can become denial if we’re not careful.

Knowing about Jesus isn’t enough. Quoting Scripture doesn’t cut it. The question is: Does your life say, “I know Him”?

Today, let’s decide to be bold. Speak His name. Live His truth. Let your faith show, not just in church, but everywhere. Because one day, when eternity calls, the only thing that will matter is this: Did you know Him, and did He know you?

I pray the Lord will help us never to be ashamed of Him and give us the boldness to speak, courage to stand, and a life that points people to Him.
